

Catalano invited to join Prudential's Honor Society

Catrina Catalano

Scott MacDonald, manager of Prudential California Realty's Newport Beach office, is pleased to announce that Catrina Catalano has been inducted to the company's Honor Society. Catalano's outstanding sales performance last year ranked her in the top 13 percent of more than 64,000 Prudential agents nationwide.

"Catrina is a dedicated and compassionate individual with a natural talent for the real estate business," said MacDonald. "Her professional demeanor and positive outlook have made her an extremely popular agent among her vast network of colleagues and clients. She is a valuable asset to our office."

A focus on ethical business practices and a commitment to advance her knowledge has earned Catalano continued referrals and an excellent reputation in the real estate community. To ensure her clients receive the information and resources they need to make educated decisions, she recently completed an advanced curriculum of coursework to earn the Green Property Advisor designation and the Short Sale Specialist designation.

By personally managing the multiple aspects of each transaction and by working tirelessly to make herself available, Catalano has become a trusted advisor to an expansive base of clientele. She provides personalized and thorough assistance for clients throughout Orange, Los Angeles and Riverside Counties and as far as Alameda County in Northern California.

Catalano's experiences battling thyroid cancer 13 years ago have been a constant source of inspiration for her; since that period in her life she has donated a considerable amount of time and funds to help other people. She has been a team captain for the American Cancer Society's 24-hour Relay for Life for 10 consecutive years. This year's relay will begin at Newport Harbor High School on Saturday, May 21st, at 10 a.m., and end on Sunday, May 22nd at 10 a.m.

"The vast emotional rewards that come from volunteer work have made it a very fulfilling life commitment for me," says Catalano. She supports a variety of charities and causes, including The Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation, The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, UNICEF, American Red Cross, Susan G Komen Foundation, AIDS Lifecycle, CHOC Children's Hospital and many more.
